Political Contribution Refund (PCR) Program Put Your Tax Money to Work for You!

Official Definition of the PCR program from the Campaign Finance Board:

“Minnesota refunds up to $75 per calendar year of contributions made by an eligible voter to a recognized political party or to a qualified candidate for governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, secretary of state, state auditor, state senator, or state representative. To receive a refund, the donor the Department of Revenue along with a political contribution refund application form.” This form (Political Contribution Refund (PCR) and the necessary documentation will be mailed to you after the Goodhue County Treasurer receives your donation.

Are You Eligible?

You may claim the PCR refund if you are a United States citizen, are 18 years of age or older, and have lived in MN for at least 20 days immediately before any 2023 statewide or local election in which you would be eligible to vote if you were registered.

“You are not eligible for the refund if you are under a person’s guardianship but have not retained the right to vote. You have been found by a court legally incompetent to vote. You have been convicted of a felony and your civil rights have not been restored.” You also may not get your refund if you owe taxes (state or federal) or a debt to a state agency, district court, qualifying hospital, or public library.

The Goodhue County Republicans would like you to consider using the PCR program to support our organization.

How We Spend Our Money:

- 1) Supporting State senators, State representatives, Other State offices (Judicial, local, and federal candidates are not eligible for this refund program.)
- 2) Necessities such as rent for meeting places, expenditures such as copies for handouts, advertising, supplies, and upcoming fundraisers
- 3) No money goes toward any salaries. the Goodhue County BPOU (Republicans) is a volunteer organization.
